

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Robert M. Carr's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals who leave the comforts of their home and family to nobly serve a cause greater than themselves; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Carr has devoted over 20 years of his life making sacrifices that demonstrated no mission was too hard, no challenge was too great, and through tests and trials he emerged stronger than before; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership as a motor transport operator and horizontal construction platoon sergeant, and his service in Kuwait, Iraq, and Afghanistan have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country, and it is a privilege to honor his success, his sacrifice, and his service; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Carr continues to give of himself, and our future is brighter thanks to his dedication; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class Robert M. Carr for over 20 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 1, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS

ROBERT M. CARR DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
